

As Chain is being used, the loop will not be explicit:
The entire meal request will be handed over to the kitchen and the handle() function of each chef will be used to iterate through each item requested in the meal (As each chef will be responsible for a specific item, if an item is found in the meal request that corresponds to that chef, it will add that to the meal object that will be returned)